2017 RATE CARD

Creative Content Media is a global video production group able to create unique content and bespoke communication platforms for clients ranging from television series to short form "About Us" video.

Online, mobile and social media destinations are quickly evolving from simple "text & stills" to being driven by high quality interactive video as the most powerful communication medium. We also work with a range of presenters and experts who can add authority and clarity to your content.

We operate from production bases in Melbourne, Singapore and London. We are constantly adding new technologies to all our content, including "clickable" video and the ability to build your bespoke video platform.
